We received a dispatch from HCCC regarding information they received from Campbell County Dispatch. Campbell County Dispatch advised that a 14 yr old male, named Timothy Pitzen, had just escaped from two kidnappers that have been holding him for 7 years.

Timothy is originally from Illinois and was last known to be with his mother, who apparently had killed herself. A note was left stating that Timothy was with someone, but was safe.

Timothy described the two kidnappers as two male, whites, body-builder type build. One had black curly hair, Mt. Dew shirt and jeans, & has a spider web tattoo on his neck. The other was short in stature and had a snake tattoo on his arms.

The vehicle they were operating is described as a newer model Ford SUV, bearing unknown WI plates, with a 2nd row, white in color with yellow transfer paint, and a dent on the left back bumper.

Apparently, Timothy had escaped and kept running across a bridge into KY. They had been staying at a Red Roof Inn, but Timothy had no idea where. Campbell County Dispatched had contacted all surrounding agencies with a Red Roof Inn in their jurisdiction.

After checking our Red Roof Inn and surrounding motels, nothing was found.
